The European Commission released the Inception Impact Assessment (IIA) on Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanisms for public review and comment (due on April 1). Over 200 corporations, think tanks, NGOs, and private citizens from around the EU submitted comments detailing their opinions and suggestions on the IIA. In addition to submitting our own feedback paper (available here), ERCST has synthesised other stakeholders' feedback, highlighting the main differences and commonalities.

This meeting is an opportunity for stakeholders to discuss the IIA in greater depth. ERCST will present its synthesis of the feedback to the CBAM IIA and will moderate a discussion among representatives from organisations that provided comments to the IIA, as well as other stakeholders.
