

In conversation with Archie Young UK's lead climate negotiator the road to COP 26 in Glasgow

Date: 12 January 2020

Time: 14:30– 15:45 CET

Location: Zoom Videoconference

Interviewers: Andrei Marcu & Michael Mehling

During this one-hour conversation, Archie Young, the United Kingdom's lead climate negotiator will talk about the road to COP 26 in Glasgow and the priorities of the UK presidency.

After an introductory interview, Andrei Marcu and Michael Mehling will moderate a Q&A with participants.

Due to the ongoing health crisis, the UNFCCC process has also been severely delayed. COP 26, which was supposed to take place in Glasgow this November, has been postponed by one year.

Join ERCST during this session to learn more about what to expect from the UNFCCC process going into 2021, and the UK's Presidencies' priorities for COP 26.

14:30 Welcome and introduction

- Andrei Marcu, ERCST

14:35 Opening statement

- Archie Young, lead climate negotiator of the United Kingdom

14:50 Introductory interview

During this introductory interview, ERCST's Andrei Marcu and Michael Mehling will go in conversation with Archie Young, discussing what to expect from the UNFCCC process in 2021 and what the priorities are of the UK presidency for COP 26

15:20 Q&A with participants